

Will Goodhart was appointed Chief Executive of the UK Society of Investment Professionals in December 2006. Goodhart joined the Society from Euromoney Institutional Investor plc where he was a divisional director with responsibility for specialist financial brands including Global Investor, Emerging Markets and International Securities Finance. Previously, he was editor of Asiamoney and of Corporate Finance magazines. He is an IMC member of the UKSIP, has worked in the financial services sector since 1986 and holds a BA in Modern History from Durham University.

Will Goodhart also acts as Company Secretary for the UK Society of Investment Professionals.