

Richard Szwagrzak CFA, age 46 - Richard is the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer at Trafalgar Capital Management Limited, with responsibility for risk management, finance, operations and compliance. From 1991 to 1999 he worked for Buchanan Partners Limited, a London-based quantitative hedge fund manager, where his responsibility for fund accounting and administration culminated in his appointment as Finance Director. In 1999 he joined Mizuho International, becoming Head of Market Risk with responsibility for all aspects of risk reporting and later Head of Risk Methodology. Richard is a Chartered Financial Analyst and an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants. He is Chairman of the editorial board of Professional Investor, UKSIP's journal. Richard holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics and its Applications from the University of Sussex.